THE MINISTER OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI JASWANT SINGH): (a) to (d) Government of India is committed to the development of friendly and good neighbourly relations with China on the basis of the principles of Panchsheel, mutual sensitivity to each others concerns and equality. This has been underscored during recent high level political exchanges between India and China, including during the visit of Chinese Premier Zhu Rongji in January 2002 and the visit of External Affairs Minister to China in March-April 2002.

Both sides are taking steps to further promote the development of bilateral relations.

Prime Minister has been invited to visit China and has accepted the invitation. Dates for the visit will be settled through diplomatic channels.

China's Cooperation with India and Russia

2711. SHRI RUMANDLA RAMACHANDRAIAH: Will the Minister of EXTERNAL AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether China has agreed to have a cooperation with India and Russia on issues like terrorism, international security and stability;

(b) if so, whether any working programme in this regard has been reached between the three countries;

(c) if so, the details thereof; and

(d) to what extent it would strengthen bilateral cooperation with all countries?

THE MINISTER OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI JASWANT SINGH): (a) India and China have agreed to establish an annual bilateral dialogue mechanism on counter-terrorism. India and China also have in place a process of foreign office consultations and a security dialogue.

(b) No, Sir.

(c) and (d) Do not arise.
